Executive Director, CIVET
Center for Innovative Ventures of Emerging Technologies
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
School of Engineering

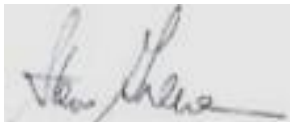

Dear Susan,

I am writing to express our enormous gratitude for the invaluable support provided by the Center for Innovative Ventures of Emerging Technologies in our outreach efforts on behalf of the mHealthcon Conference held on College Avenue campus December 1, 2011.

Your enthusiastic encouragement, advice and outreach in promoting this on-campus event directly contributed to our strong attendance of 240 delegates including academic staff, key opinion leaders, industrial partners and stakeholders connected to Rutgers and CIVET.

We look forward to continuing to work with closely with your department in the coming year.

Best Regards,

Steven Greene
